AWARD NOMINATION GUIDE AND PROCEDURES

National Blacks In Government (BIG) Military Meritorious Service Award

National Blacks In Government (BIG) is one of the Department of Defense (DoD)'s diversity affinity groups and is accepting nominations for National Blacks In Government Military Meritorious Service Award. This guide provides information on this award.

Nominees represent the Department of Defense; therefore, the agency must ensure there is nothing in their background that would discredit the Department.

General Information:

An award recipient’s organization is responsible for certifying the nominations and funding any travel and per diem costs for the awards presentation. The awards will be presented during BIG’s 2023 National Training Institute (NTI), a 4-day premiere training event with individual sessions facilitated by subject matter experts and Senior Executive Service (SES) members. Many of the sessions qualify for continuing professional education (CPE) credits. Attendance by DoD personnel at any of these events that meet the definition of a conference must be approved in accordance with the conference approval procedures outlined in the Deputy Secretary of Defense Memorandum dated September 29, 2012, "Implementation of Conference Oversight Requirements and Delegation of Conference Approval Authority."

Specific Evaluation Criteria:

1. The nominees demonstrated support for the full integration and promotion of African Americans within the Armed Forces or Federal civilian workforce.

2. The nominees significantly increased the opportunity for participation of Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) in Federal programs and enhanced the capacity to build and develop infrastructure to increase participation in DoD programs involving contracts and grants, student and faculty employment, Research and Development, and the Officer Training Corps.

Note: Military or Civilian award nominations should be submitted directly to your DoD component for consideration. Your DoD component must submit their top three (3) nominees to BIG for the final selection of award recipients on or before Friday, June 2, 2023.

Awards will be presented on Tuesday, August 29, 2023, to one outstanding person Military or Civilian (selected winner) from the following Components if all prerequisites listed in this package are met: Active and Reserve Service Components, National Guard, Defense Agencies, DoD Field Activities, or a Combatant Command.
Standard Award Procedures:

1. Military Service and/or DoD Component organizations should forward the call for nominations and announce required internal suspense dates as appropriate.

2. Military Service and/or DoD Component organizations may select award nominations based upon set criteria and assemble award nomination package(s).

3. Packages must include all (6) items listed below.
   a. Cover or transmittal memorandum.
   b. Award Nomination Transmittal Form (contained in this guide on page 6)
   c. A brief narrative describing the recommended award nominees' accomplishments warranting the recognition specific to the award not to exceed two pages.
   d. An award citation highlighting the recommended award nominees' accomplishments, not to exceed 200 words.
   e. A single-spaced biography of the nominee not to exceed one page.
   f. A digital photograph of the award winner (.jpg format preferred) no larger than 5 x 7 in size. The minimum acceptable size is 4 x 6.

Note: Please do not send scanned or PDF documents. All documents should be submitted in a Microsoft Word Document, single-spaced, 12-pitch font, with 1-inch left and right margins.

4. If submission of the award nomination package to National BIG would result in the Military Service and/or DoD component disclosing to BIG any information maintained in a system of records covered by the Privacy Act, 5 U.S. C 552a, then the component concerned must determine that the disclosure is permissible under the relevant Systems of Record Notice or obtain consent from the nominee to disclose the information to BIG for the purpose of the award nomination.

5. DoD Component Diversity Equity, Inclusion, and Accessibility (DEIA), Military Equal Opportunity, and Equal Employment Opportunity offices should ensure award nominations are complete and ensure nominations meet the stated criteria. Incomplete packages should not be forwarded.

6. Military Service and/or DoD Component offices will forward their top three (3) nomination packages to National BIG electronically and in word format by the suspense date set of Friday, June 2, 2023. Military Service and/or DoD components must set their own internal deadlines.
General Evaluation Criteria for Award Nomination Packages:

a. The nominee distinguished themselves by promoting the tenets of civil/human rights, equal opportunity, human relations, and/or public service.

b. The nominees displayed an exceptional character that distinguishes an individual as an outstanding leader, role model, or mentor by promoting the development or advancement of all Military Service and/or DoD personnel, including women and minorities.

c. The nominees contributed to equal opportunity for advancement based on merit and fitness for all Armed Forces members and civilians, including women and minorities.

d. The nominees believed in and practiced the tenets of a democratic society, including the Declaration of Independence - the belief that all people are created equal and that freedom is a right that must always be protected.

e. The nominees assisted in overcoming discrimination and eliminating barriers that hinder the equal opportunity for all Armed Forces members and civilian employees, including women and minorities.

f. The nominees supported the full integration and promotion of all DoD personnel to include minorities and women within the Armed Forces and civilian workforce.

g. The nominees created opportunities that support and contribute to the mentorship, development, advancement, or retention of all personnel, including women and minorities, in government service consistent with merit principles.

h. The nominees created job or training opportunities that will support and contribute to the advancement of all Service members, including women and minorities in the Armed Forces or civilian workforce.
